Whitehall, June 29. 1740.

THIS Day Mr Thomas, Purser of his Majesty's Ship the Strafford, arriv'd here with Letters from Vice Admiral Vernon, dated Porto Bello April 5, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with the following Account, viz.

That on the 25th of February last he sail'd from Port Royal in Jamaica with a Squadron of his Majesty's Ships, and having a favourable Wind, got sight of the high Land of St. Martha on the Spanish Main the 1st of March: That he order'd Capt. Windham in the Greenwich to ply up in the Night, and lie to Windward of the Port, for intercepting any thing that might be coming in there the next Day; and himself bore away with an easy Sail for Carthagena. That the 3d at noon, he was join'd by the Falmouth, Capt. Douglass, off Point Canoa, and that Evening anchor'd with the Squadron before Carthagena in nine Fathom Water, in the open Bay call'd Playa-Grande; and on 6th, he order'd in all the Bomb Ketches, and the small Ships and Tenders for covering and assisting them, and continu'd Bombarding till nine in the Morning: That the Squadron receiv'd no Damage from the Town, but the Shells fell into the Town pretty successfully, particularly into the principal Church, the Jesuits College, the Custom House, and beat down several Houses between them, and a Shell that fell into the South Bastion, silenced a Battery of ten Guns there for a long Time. That he drew off his Bomb-Ketches and small Craft on the 9th, and weigh'd with his Squadron on the 10th in the Morning, and making the Signal for the Line of Battle, he coasted the Shore towards Boca Chica: That they fired at him from the three small Castles without Boca Chica, but none of their Shot reach'd him: And that having left the Windsor, Capt. Berkeley, and the Greenwich, Capt. Windham, to cruize off the Port of Carthagena for twenty Days, he made sail to Porto Bello, to repair there the Damages the small Craft had receiv'd: and on the 14th anchor'd with his Squadron in Porto Bello Harbour, detaching his Cruziers from time to time to lie off Chagre, to block up the Enemy; and having got his Ships water'd put to Sea on the 22d with his Squadron, except the Louvisa and Falmouth, which had not completed their Watering, but had his Orders to hasten it, and follow him; but an Accident in the Fore-top-sail Yard of his Ship the Stafford, retarding her Progress, he order'd Capt. Herbert in the Norwich to make all the sail he could in before him with the Bomb Ketches and all the Fireships and Tenders under his Orders, and Capt. Knowles, as Engineer on board the Bomb-Ketches for placing them to play on the Castle, and to cover them with his own Ship and the rest: That Capt. Knowles got to an Anchor by Three in the Afternoon, and began bombarding and cannonading that Evening, and by Ten o'Clock at Night he got also to an Anchor with his own Ship the Stafford, and the Falmouth and Princess Louisa that follow'd him, the same Night; and continu'd Bombarding and cannonading with three Ships firing leisurely only from their lower Tier till Eleven o'Clock on Monday the 24th, when the Spaniards hung out a Flag of Truce from the Fort, and he answer'd it from his own Ship, and stopt all Firing as soon as possible, and sent Capt. Knowles on Shore, who soon return'd with the Governor; to whom having granted the Capitulation hereto subjoin'd, he sent him ashore again with Capt. Knowles, whom he appointed Governor of the Castle for his Majesty, and sent a Garrison along with him of five Lieutenants and a hundred and twenty Men, and all the Boats of the Fleet to land them, and by Three o'Clock that Afternoon Capt. Knowles enter'd the Fort with his Garrison. The same Evening Capt. Knowles sent and placed a Guard upon the Custom-House on the opposite Side of the River Chagre, and Vice Admiral Vernon went on shore himself by Day break the next Morning to give all necessary Orders, and found the Custom-House full of Goods for the Lading of the Galleons, such as Guayaquil Cocoa, Jesuits Bark, and Spanish Wool, and gave immediate Orders for their being shipp'd off. The Number of Serons and bags of the said mention'd Goods amounted to 4300; that the two Guarda Costas Sloops in the River (which were all the Guarda Costas that were left in those Parts) were sunk just above the Custom-House, Carpenters having been order'd to break up their Decks and entirely destroy them. The Custom-House being entirely clear'd by Friday the 28th, was fill'd with combustible matter of the neighbouring Huts, and set on Fire that Evening, and it burnt with great Fierceness all that Night. On the 29th in the Morning, the Brass Cannon being embark'd, which were eleven Guns and eleven Patteraroes, and a good Part of the Garrison, the Mines were sprung under the lower Bastion, which entirely demolish'd it. Then two Mines were sprung to blow up some of the upper Parts of the Works, and afterwards all the inner

Build-

Buildings of the Caſtle were ſet on Fire, and were burning all the Night of the 29th. On the 30th Vice-Admiral Vernon put to Sea with his Squadron, and on the 1ſt of April in the Evening got to the Mouth of the Harbour of Porto Bello, and was join'd there by the Windſor and Greenwich juſt return'd from their Cruize off Carthagena; and on the 3d was join'd alſo by the Hurford, which he had left at Jamaica to be repair'd.

Articles of Capitulation granted by Edward Vernon, Eſq; Vice Admiral of the Blue, and Commander in Chief of his Britannick Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Weſt-Indies, to Don Juan Carlos Gutierez de Zaullos, Captain of Foot, and Caſtillano of the Caſtle of St. Lorenzo, at the Mouth of the River Chagre.

I. That upon his Britannick Majeſty's Troops being put in immediate Poſſeſſion of the Fort St. Lorenzo, of the Mouth of the River Chagre, the ſaid Caſtelano, and all his Garriſon, be at free Liberty to march out without any Moleſtation, and may retire into the Village of Chagre or where elſe they pleaſe.

II. That the Inhabitants of Chagre may remain in all Safety in their own Houſes, under a Promiſe of Security to their Perſons and Houſes.

II. That the Guarda Coſtas Sloops be deliver'd up to the Uſe of his Britannick Majeſty, in the Condition they are, and the King of Spain's Cuſtom-Houſe.

IV. That the Clergy and Churches in the Town of Chagre ſhall be protected and perſerv'd in all their Immunities.

Given under my Hand on Board his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Stafford, at Anchor before the River Chagre, the 24th of March 1739.

LONDON, June 19. 1740.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated June 21.

AS the Court of France now turns its Thoughts in earneſt towards making a conſiderable Augmentation in its Naval Force, and as very extraordinary Reports have been ſpread relating to this Subject, ſome Members of the Government, in order to penetrate into the Truth, and get the moſt perfect Information thereof, have for that purpoſe ſent Perſons they could confide in, even to the French Ports, where they were undeniably convinced, that a great Augmentation was certainly making to the Marine of France: That beſides the Ships building in the Ports of that Kingdom, there are already ſeveral arrived from America and Sweden; and that the Court ſeemed to intend to have ready to be employed on Occaſion at leaſt ſixty Men of War. The Crown of France has lately given its Agents in this Country Commiſſion to buy in the Ports thereof ſix Ships, part to be of the Line, and the reſt Frigates. Various are the Conjectures made upon the real Deſign of this Naval Armament, ſome People imagining it, or at leaſt ſome Part thereof, to be intended to be ſent into the Baltick, to join the Swedes; others that it is deſigned to conſtrain Great-Britain to make Peace with the Spaniards, in caſe that cannot be brought about by way of Negociation.

His Majeſty's Ship the Cumberland, Capt. Alexander Stuart, of 80 Guns, is order'd for the Weſt-Indies, having for that Purpoſe been dock'd and ſheath'd at Sheerneſs.

Letters from the Canaries of the 25th of May, N. S. adviſe, that a Spaniſh Privateer brought in there a few Days before a Veſſel bound from Ireland, one Hays Maſter; alſo a Veſſel with 200 Quintals of Copper on board, which laſt he took out of the Harbour of Santa Cruz in Barbary.

The Commiſſioners of the Navy have been pleaſed to appoint Capt. Verrey to be Maſter of his Majeſty's Ship the Victory, on board which Ship Sir John Norris, Admiral of the Fleet, has hoiſted the Union Flag.

By Letters from Portſmouth we are inform'd that the greateſt Part of the Troops are embark'd; every Man of War takes on board as many Marines as ſhe carries Guns, beſides the Officers, and the remaining Number are to go on board the Tranſports, many of which are near as large as our Twenty Gun Ships.

London July 5. Extract of a Letter from Briſtol July 2.

Laſt Night we had a Veſſel from Oporto in 12 Days, by which we learn, that the Spaniſh Fleet was then at Ferrol, in a very bad Condition, the Men ſick, and in great want of Proviſions.

On the 29th of June they had Advice at Liverpool, that a Ship of 200 Tons, bound from Virginia to that Port, was taken 18 Leagues from Cape-Clear, by a Spaniſh Privateer; but her Name unknown.

We are credibly inform'd, that notwithſtanding the Reports which have prevail'd, that the late hard Winter had damag'd the Seed in the Ground, and greatly prejudiced the enſuing Crop, that by the kind Rains we have had for ſome time paſt the Corn ſprings up in all Parts of the Kingdom in a very promiſing Manner, and we have great Reaſon to expect, (with the Bleſſing of God) a plentiful Harveſt. The ſaid Reports have been rais'd only by the Engroſſers, to get off at an exorbitant Price, the Stocks they have on Hand, and thereby deſtreſs the honeſt and laborious Poor.

June 27. It ſeems the Ruſſians do not underſtand the modern, polite Method of endeavouring to get Satisfaction for Inſults, by tedious Negociations; for, by late Accounts from Conſtantinople, we are told, that the Ruſſian Miniſter there demanded Satisfaction from the Porte, for a freſh Inſult committed by the Tartars upon the Coſſacks; and at the ſame Time declared that this which was the firſt ſhould be the laſt Time it would be demanded by the Czarina his Sovereign, who if it were not granted, would take her own Way to do herſelf Juſtice.

A Defenſive Alliance between the Swedes and Turks was ſign'd at Conſtantinaple Dec. the 22d laſt, containing 9 Articles. 1. The ancient Friendſhip is confirmed. 2. The two Powers agree to aſſiſt one another with their Councels whenever Ruſſia undertakes any thing againſt either of them in violation of Treaties. 3. The Parties mutually promiſe to obſerve this Treaty. 4. Whenever it is perceiv'd Ruſſia is about to break with either of the two Powers, the contracting Parties ſhall endeavour to prevent a Rupture; but if they can't ſucceed in it, they ſhall jointly attack that Power, and make their utmoſt Efforts to procure Satisfaction. 5. If Ruſſia attacks either Sweden or the Ottoman Empire, ſuch Hoſtility ſhall be deem'd an Attack upon both the Parties. 6. If Ruſſia attacks the Ottoman Empire,

Sweden

Sweden ſhall immediately declare War againſt her; the Grand Signior ſhall do the ſame whenever Ruſſia attacks Sweden, and neither Party ſhall enter into ſeparate Negotiations or make a ſeparate Peace; but if Peace be made by conſent of both Parties, the Defenſive Alliance ſhall ſubſiſt as before. 7. Other Parties are invited to accede to the Treaty. 8. Sweden having concluded a Treaty with Algiers and Tunis, and being in Negociation with Tripoli, theſe Regencies ſhall be bound to conform to what is Stipulated between Sweden and the Porte. 9. The Treaty of Commerce and the Advantages granted the Subjects of Sweden in the Ottoman Empire, are confirm'd.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.

Yeſterday in the Forenoon the Rev. Mr. Commiſſary Price made a very pertinent Diſcourſe at the King's Chapel, where were preſent (to receive the Sacrament) the commiſſion'd Officers, who are to go in the preſent Expedition; from Judges 5. 8, 9. They choſe new Gods; then was War in the Gates: was there a Shield or a Spear ſeen among forty Thouſand in Iſrael? my Heart is towards the Governors of Iſrael, that offered themſelves willingly among the People; Bleſs ye the Lord.

NEW-YORK, September 15.

By a private Letter from Dublin, dated the 18th of July, we are informed, that that Day, according to their Advices from London, Admiral Norris and Lord Cathcart were to ſail, with the Fleet of 37 Ships of the Line, and ſome few others, beſides Bomb Ketches, Fire Ships, and a great Number of Tranſports, many of which are as large as ſome of our 20 Gun Ships, and all of them carry as many Guns as are fit for the Veſſel.

We hear that Capt. Bourdet from this Place, bound for Georgia, is taken by a Spaniſh Privateer.

To-morrow his Majeſty's Ships the Squirrel and Aſtrea ſail for Jamaica; on board of which Capt. Clarke's Company of Voluntiers is to embark; and the other Companies will all embark this Week for Virginia, whence they will proceed to the General Rendezvous and join my Lord Cathcart: So that we may now ſoon hope to ſee our brave Countrymen in Poſſeſſion of ſome of the Riches and Territories of the haughty Spaniard.

We hear that the Hon. Col. Blakeney is promoted to the Rank of a Brigadier General.

PHILADELPHIA.

The ſeven Companies raiſed in this Province, are all embark'd; and 'tis ſaid the Tranſports will fall down in a few Days. The Companies are all full, and the Men chearful and in good Heart. They were review'd by his Honour the Governor before they went on board, and perform'd their Exerciſe to Admiration.

The Company rais'd in the Lower Counties will embark at New-Caſtle.
